Insurance Program:
Canadian Psychological Association (CPA) &
Council of Professional Associations of Psychology (CPAP)

In order to be eligible for this insurance, you must be a member of the Canadian Psychological Association (CPA) or a provincial/territorial association of psychology who make up the Council of Professional Associations of Psychologists (CPAP).

The insurer is HDI Global Specialty SE

The information provided in this Insurance Product Information Document is a summary of key information about your policy that you should read. The summary does NOT contain the full terms, conditions, excesses and exclusions. These are detailed in the policy wording(s). A copy of each is available on request.

What is this type of insurance?

This summary provides details for Legal Expense for Audits.

I would like a full copy of the policy wording:

Once you have completed your application form and provided payment, a certificate of insurance will be provided to you automatically by email. A full copy of the policy wording will be provided upon request before or after the purchase of insurance. Please contact BMS Canada Risk Services Ltd. At 1-855-318-6038 or psy.insurance@bmsgroup.com to receive a full copy.

Tax:

All premiums noted are subject to applicable provincial tax: Ontario 8%, Quebec 9%, Manitoba 7%, Newfoundland 15%, and Saskatchewan 6%, other provinces are not subject to tax.

When and how do I pay?

For full details of when and how to pay, you should contact your broker. Premiums are negotiated with the insurers annually.

When does the coverage start and end?

Coverage will begin either on the date that payment is received or on the renewal date, depending on which is applicable. Please note that if you renew your insurance policy after its expiry, the effective date of the policy will be set to the date that payment is received. This insurance ends on the common expiry date of June 1 annually.

How do I cancel the contract?

Insureds domiciled in Quebec, can cancel this insurance within 10 days of applying for coverage unless you have made a claim on this insurance. Premiums will be fully refunded. In absence of a request for rescission during this 10 day period, premiums will be fully retained.

Please see below your obligations and claims reporting details. If this is unclear or you have any questions, please contact BMS Canada Risk Services Ltd. at 1-855-318-6038 or by email at psy.insurance@bmsgroup.com.

What are my obligations?

You must notify your broker:

- as soon as reasonably possible if you become aware that information you have given us is inaccurate;
 - as soon as reasonably possible if you become aware of a claim, complaint or incident that could result in a claim or complaint made against you.
 - as soon as reasonably possible if there has been a change in your material business such as: hiring other professionals, becoming a sole proprietor, leasing a space, purchasing a building, undergoing renovations, entering into a contract with a leasing company or landlord, providing services that fall outside of your scope of practice or other changes that could affect your coverage.
- Each Insurance product is subject to review and acceptance of a fully completed application form and compliance with the terms within.
 - It is your responsibility to ensure that the amount of insurance and the coverage selection adequately reflect your business needs. If you require guidance from a licensed broker, please contact BMS for a full portfolio review.
 - If a claim for liability is made against you, you must as soon as reasonably possible forward to your broker or the claims handler.
 - You must not admit liability or offer or agree to settle any claim without the insurer's written permission.

Making a complaint?

Should you wish to make a complaint, please refer to our complaints policies and procedures found on the Regulation section of our website.

All applicants must confirm that any statements made in their application are accurate and complete, and acknowledges that the Insurers are relying on these statements in the issuance of any quotation, binder or policy arising out of their application. Should a policy be issued to the applicant, the application and its attachments, if any, shall form the basis of the policy and be binding on all Insureds under the policy. The applicant agrees that, if any statements made in the application change between the date of this application and the effective date of the policy, the applicant will provide written notice of such changes immediately to BMS Canada Risk Services Ltd, and BMS Canada Risk Services Ltd. reserves the right to withdraw or modify any outstanding quotation(s) or agreement(s) to bind coverage.

If you have any questions whatsoever regarding the insurance coverage, application process, claims process, or any other information listed in this document, please contact BMS Canada Risk Services Ltd. directly.

POLICY CONDITIONS

1. Observance of policy terms.

The insured person must:

- (a) comply with the terms and conditions of this policy;
- (b) notify us immediately of any change in circumstance which may materially affect our assessment of the risk;
- (c) take reasonable steps to avoid and prevent claims;
- (d) take reasonable steps to avoid incurring unnecessary costs;
- (e) send everything we reasonably ask for in writing;
- (f) report to us full and factual details of any claim as soon as practicable and give us any information we reasonably need.

2. Notice of Insured Event

The insured person shall notify us of any insured event which may give rise to coverage, as soon as they become aware of it. Any interested person may give such notice. In the event that the requirement set out in the preceding paragraph is not fully complied with, all rights to coverage shall be forfeited by the insured person where such non-compliance has caused prejudice to us.

3. Conduct and control of claim

- (a) If it is necessary to take legal proceedings, including a tax appeal, an appointed representative will be appointed by us on behalf of the insured person in accordance with our standard terms of appointment and will be retained by the insured person.
- (b) Where we have agreements with more than one law firm with respect to a specialty, the insured person may select their appointed representative from that panel of law firms.
- (c) The insured person must cooperate with us and must keep us up to date regarding the progress of the claim.
- (d) The insured person must cooperate with the appointed representative and must follow the recommendations of the appointed representative, which have been agreed to by us.
- (e) The insured person must give the appointed representative any instructions that we require.

4. Consent to access information

The insured person will provide written consent, at the commencement of the retainer of the appointed representative, permitting the appointed representative, at our request, to give us, or our insurer actuaries or auditors, or any regulatory authority or its agents, to the extent required by law, access to all correspondence, documents and records in the appointed representative's possession or control which are relevant to the matter. This consent will include permission to deliver up all such documents or copies of all such documents at our request.

5. Offers to settle a claim

- (a) The insured person must tell us if anyone offers to settle a claim and must not negotiate or agree to a settlement without our written consent.
- (b) If the insured person does not accept an offer we, based on the advice of the appointed representative, consider reasonable to settle a claim, we may refuse to pay further legal costs.
- (c) We reserve the right to pay the insured person the reasonable amount of damages that the insured person is claiming, or that is being claimed against them, or negotiate a reasonable settlement of any claim, instead of starting or continuing legal proceedings. In these circumstances the insured person must allow us to take over and conduct in their name the pursuit or settlement of any claim. The insured person will also allow us to pursue at our own expense and for our own benefit, any claim for compensation against any other party and must give us all information and assistance required.

6. Withdrawal of coverage

If an insured person settles or negotiates a claim without our consent, or withdraws a claim without our consent, or does not give to the appointed representative any instructions that we require, we can withdraw coverage and will be entitled to reclaim from the insured person any legal costs we have paid.

7. Sanction limitation

The Insurer shall not be deemed to provide coverage and the Insurer shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit hereunder to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose the Insurer to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under trade or economic sanctions, laws, or regulations of Canada, the United States of America, the United Nations, or the European Union.

8. Assessment and recovery of costs

- (a) The insured person must instruct the appointed representative to have legal costs taxed, assessed or audited if we ask for this.
- (b) The insured person must take every reasonable step to recover legal costs that we have to pay and must pay us any amounts that are recovered.
- (c) Where a settlement is made on a without costs basis the appointed representative will determine what proportion of that settlement will be deemed legal costs and payable to or by us.

9. Cancellation of a representative's appointment

If the appointed representative refuses to continue acting for the insured person, or if the insured person dismisses the appointed representative without our prior consent, the coverage the Insurer provides will end immediately.

10. Disputes over reasonable prospects for a claim

If there is a dispute between an insured person and us over reasonable prospects, the insured person may obtain, at their expense, an opinion, from a lawyer mutually agreed to by the insured person and us, on the merits of a claim or proceedings. If the lawyer's opinion indicates that reasonable prospects exist, we will pay the reasonable cost of obtaining the opinion.

11. Complaint handling

If you are not satisfied with any aspect of our service and wish to make a complaint, you can, Telephone us at 1.888.582.5586 or email us at customerrelations@arag.ca. Alternatively, the Insurer can be contacted by Telephone at 1.416.867.9712 or email at complaints-canadianBranch@hdi-specialty.com.
